Programme:

With the increasing relevance of bibliometric analyses in the assessment of researchers and institutional performances, we strongly feel the need to discuss and establish better criteria to perform evaluations. Moreover, multidisciplinary organizations, such as universities as well as cross-disciplinary institutions gathering researchers from several fields, often find major obstacles in defining indicators to measure research performance (both institutional and individual), and especially when comparison with monodisciplinary institutions is required. For this event, we gathered national and international experts in the field in order to provide a wide discussion on the topic, thus helping to define better criteria to perform evaluations. The event is designed to be an informal one-day workshop, for the local and national scientific communities, in which discussions will be strongly stimulated.

08h45 Welcome

09h00 Session 1
Moderator: Carlos Costa
Keynote lecture 1 - Is bibliometrics useful, necessary or sufficient for research evaluation?
Tiago Santos Pereira
CES - Universidade de Coimbra, Portugal

10h00 Clara Macedo
SIR - Scimago Institutions Rankings: To be or not be a ranking
Biblioteca Virtual, Universidade do Porto

10h30 Coffee break

11h00 Session 2
Moderator: José Sarsfield Cabral
Topic 1 – Role of scientometrics in research assessment

José Ferreira Gomes, REQUIMTE, Faculdade de Ciências, Universidade do Porto
Aurora A.C. Teixeira, CEF.UP, Faculdade de Economia, Universidade do Porto, INESC TEC, OBEGEF
Manuel Matos, INESC TEC, Faculdade de Engenharia, Universidade do Porto

Keynote lecture - New web-based tools for assessing scientific impact, "narcissism" and the evaluation of individual researchers with bibliometric indicators

12h00

Rodrigo Costas Comesaña

Centre for Science and Technology Studies, University of Leiden, The Netherlands

13h00

Lunch

Session 3

14h30

Moderator: João ClaroTopic 2 – Bibliometrics in practice: challenges in building and exploiting databases*Elizabeth Sousa Vieira, REQUIMTE, Departamento de Química e Bioquímica, Faculdade de Ciências, Universidade do PortoPaulo Guimarães, CEF.UP, Faculdade de Economia, Universidade do PortoFernando Silva, CRACS, INESC TEC, Faculdade de Ciências, Universidade do Porto

15h30

Keynote lecture - Subject delineation, classification and indicators for bibliometric useWolfgang Glänzel

Centre for R&D Monitoring (ECCOM) and Dept. MSI, KU Leuven, Belgium

16h30

General discussion

Moderator: Pedro Granja
